

Course Information

You can choose between a general English course, Cambridge exam preparation, or a specialized/ Business English course.

Which course is for me?

If you mainly want to follow a course to improve your English in your field and you have achieved at least B1 level, a specialised/ business English course is the right choice. A general English course is recommended in all other cases.

Different Levels

We offer courses at all levels, from absolute beginner to the level of an educated native speaker.

Course Length – 10, 13, 20, 26 or 30 weeks

We offer a flexible program that takes into account both your current ability and your goals.

During the academic year, you can choose to follow a course for 10, 13, 20, 26 or 30 weeks

It is also possible to attend your course more often during the week.

During the intake you will receive personal advice that takes your current level and your wishes into account so you can reach a decision.

Course Structure

All of our courses focus on the core language skills: reading, writing, listening and speaking with extra attention given to using the language in practical situations.

At the end of your course, we measure your progress by means of a final exam. Participants who attend a minimum of 80% of the lessons receive a progress certificate indicating the level achieved.

From that moment it is possible to continue to the next level.

NB. There is 10% discount if you register for a second round.

General English Course Objectives

These courses will help you to develop a natural and precise English pronunciation. The focus is on improving your ability to use modern contemporary English in practical situations.

A general English course is mainly about;

- * The correct use of daily English when speaking and writing.
- * Improving grammar and learning the details of the English language.
- * Increasing your familiarity with specific expressions
- * Accelerating the switch from your own language and improving your self-confidence when speaking.

Specialised/ Business English Course Objectives

If you would like to improve your English for work purposes, then a business English course is an excellent choice.

During these course we focus specifically on, for example, legal English, financial English or business English. They prepare your for situations that you may encounter in your field, for example preparing a presentation, drafting a contract or conducting a negotiation.

Each lesson emphasizes the correct use of English in various work situations. The objective is that you can perform your work in English professionally and confidently.

Cambridge Exam Preparation

In addition to our general end business English courses, it is also possible to follow a preparation course for a Cambridge exam.

We offer the following preparation courses:

IELTS, FCE, CAE, CPE, BEC Vantage, BEC Higher, OET
